

QUALITY POLICY

Jubilant Ingrevia Limited and its subsidiaries are aim at achieving and continually improving the quality of product & services that exceed customer expectations across the globe by:

- Constantly explores the opportunity to upgrade its manufacturing technologies and quality standards to achieve and maintain quality leadership with thrust on eco-friendly processes
- Strives to create a cohesive and motivated team of international competence by providing continuous training to enhance knowledge and skills and through team building and talent acquisition
- Strives to create customer value with a vision of future customer expectation and compliance obligations
- Strive to improve the effectiveness of quality management system through identifying and addressing opportunities for improvement through risk analysis
- Keeping abreast of national and international standards & ensuring compliance to the standards in our business processes

Hari S Bhartia
Co-Chairman